Fresh from her live performance in "Living Legends Series" in Cerritos, Jane Russell, founder of WAIF, stopped to enjoy a luncheon hosted by former WAIF presidents Greta Peck and Mary Robertson at the Polo Lounge of the Beverly Hills Hotel. Greeting Jane were Eleanor Vallee, president of Operation Children, past presidents Toni Green, Ramona Treffinger and Barbara Simmons.

Jane will be starring in The Great Ladies of Stage and Screen at The McCallum Theatre in Palm Springs on Feb. 22. Joining her on stage will be a talented

My friend and BH neighbor Mark "Dr. Tea" Ukra, owner of Tea Garden and Herbal Emporium in West Hollywood, has been busy busy busy...

Besides being at his shop where many interesting teas are being brewed for his celebrity clientele, and where he speaks about how the various teas effect our health, "Dr. Tea" launched his first internet radio show on www.healthylife.net. He also has a new weight-watching book (The Ultimate Tea Diet) coming out soon and even has a special cruise scheduled starting Aug. 24 in Monte Carlo and finishing up in Barcelona Aug. 31.
